

2018 Summer Reading Program Wallet Card Rules

Children and teen summer readers may earn free admission to the following Rhode Island attractions by participating in the Summer Reading Program at their local public library. Requirements for earning the wallet card, which is only available at your public library and serves as an admission ticket, may vary. Inquire in the Children's or Teen Services department at your local public library.

The following are rules only and will not be accepted as coupons for free admission.
